Ling is joining the inclusivity committee.

Virginia is shadowing Hazel doing Christmas postcards with a view to taking over that task.

There was no deanery synod report, other than to say that Christ Church hosted it, and it went well.

Worship

All Souls – there were about 8 attendees, but the service was very well received. About 100 names were remembered.

Remembrance - a vote of thanks was offered to Mark and the choir. Everyone thought the extra period of poems and readings after the service worked very well.

Follow the Star booklets – the meeting agreed to get 50 booklets for the beginning of Advent which will be left at the back of church throughout the season.

Thursday morning Eucharist has flourished. 13 - 14 people now attend up from 2 or 3 last year.

Outreach

Evelyn Lee-Barber and Lore will be leading an Exploring Christianity course starting 21st Jan 2019.

One of the Exploring Christianity evenings is on Orthodoxy and Icons. Lore proposed a workshop day led by Helen McIldowie-Jenkins (details provided separately) to be held sometime Feb / Mar 2019.

Council agreed that we could fund a day from the outreach fund for this workshop. We will see how many people are interested. If no one is interested, it will be cancelled at no cost. If enough people are interested there will be two days.

Phoenix house Christmas food – it was reported that Genesis have stopped providing food for Christmas lunches. There was a suggestion that we talk to Genesis about why they stopped. The feeling was that any effort to try to replace or replicate this seems quite fraught with difficulty.

Phoenix house raised flower bed. – This is very overgrown. After some discussion the mood of the meeting was we should talk to Fr Jeremy about joining with St Marys and possibly finding a community gardening movement to help maintain it together.

Church East End Reordering

A short report back from the group that met with Treske furniture was received. The DAC strongly advised that the whole detailed plan including furniture needs working out before the faculty is applied for. Discussions about how to fit in all the required furniture are ongoing with Treske and Hugh Conway Morris.

A request was made that the chosen charities are listed on the charities notice board.

There was a general discussion about the level of charitable giving made by the church.

ME proposed and JS seconded from now on we give the loose collection on the 2nd and 4th Sundays to charity rather than just the 2nd Sunday. This passed with 10 for and 1 abstention.
